Better Advertising For Better Business

ADVERTISE YOUR STRONG POINT

Surely there's at least one thing about your store that sets it head and shoulders above your competitor's place.

You deliver to farmers.

-You guarantee quality.

-You keep open evenings.
-You give discount stamps.

-Your clerks are always courteous. Emphasize your strongest point in all your newspaper advertising Hammer it Home. Keep it up everlastingly. If you can "boil it down" to a few strong words as a slogan, so much the better.

The special bargains that you advertise, bring immediate business. It is needful. The store policy that you advertise constantly, builds good wiff. That is needful, too.
